MEDIA ACCREDITATION REGULATIONS

1. Will be classified as "media operator" all they who, attached to the request for accreditation, will send documentation of their work already done within the motorsport, or who will be credited by a news organization.
2. Will be allowed to access inside of the circuit only photographers or cameramen if 18 years older, who have filled out and sent to the press office the form and with Media Card CSAI, FIA or ERPA and professional card (that must be attached in copy to the request). Accreditation requests should be sent to the press office by fax or email within the week before the race; it will be examined by the Race Direction that, in his opinion, will decide on a possible refusal. We will not accept applications for accreditation on race days.
3. Upon arrival at the ticket office it will be required to present the documents above referred. It will be released no. 1 free pass that will entitle access to the press office, where will be delivered, on request, no. 1 numbered vest for access inside the circuit, on payment of €20 as deposit fee, that will be returned when returning the vest.
4. Access to the track is allowed only during races' breaks and must be done quickly, avoiding wasted time.
5. Operators are forbidden to move inside the circuit during practice, heats and finals. Operators will be stationed exclusively in authorized areas and they are required to comply with the safety rules and to follow the instructions of the marshals. Those who will not respect these rules will be reported by the marshals to the Race Direction, which will provide immediate expulsion from the circuit, without the return of the deposit paid.
6. All races' standings are loaded in pdf format in real time on the website of the organizer. It will not be possible to obtain paper copies.
7. Organizer will not give payments or expenses' refund of any kind for photographers, journalists or cameramen. In addition any operators' companion will not be entitled to have any discount on ticket price.
8. Within one month from the end of the race, media operators accredited are obliged to provide evidence to the Organizer of the work actually performed, accompanied by the relevant data dissemination.

The direction of the press office reserves itself the right to refuse requests for accreditation that does not comply with the above requirements.
